

<http://www.dcsf.gov.uk/parentknowhow/>

Parent Know How is a £60 million programme from the Department for Children, Schools and Families, which seeks to transform the quality, choice, provision and awareness of parental information and support services, where needed, in order to help improve outcomes for children and young people